The last Residential Board rate increase was approved at the December 2023 BoR meeting consistent with a four year predictive pricing model intended to complement the model enacted by the Board of Regents with the Registration Fee. This type of model allows the greatest amount of transparency to our students in the cost of attendance for a four year program. We committed to analyzing the Residential Board rates annually to include a "fifth year rate" at each December BoR meeting. This request is the "fifth year rate" request. The Consumer Price Index (CPI) for Food Away from Home increased 4.5% from 2023 to 2024. The 2024 to 2025 Food Away from Home CPI is projected to increase an additional 4.1%. The 12 month change for CPI for All Urban Consumers has increased by 3% contributing to increases in direct costs for operating a food service program. Additionally, labor costs have increased due to Nevada Minimum Wages increases of $0.75/hour between 2023 and 2024, labor costs will continue to increase ~22% driven by the transition to a labor union model effective March 2024. The rate revision contributes to an average meal plan increase of 4.5% for Fall 2028. The rate increases are required to maintain the quality of the Residential Food Service program. Student Affairs engaged with Undergraduate and Graduate Student Government and the Residence Hall Association (RHA) regarding the proposed fee increase. Student feedback was positive.
