Uniform Regulations

1023.1 PURPOSE AND SCOPE

The uniform policy of the University Police Department - Northern Command is established to ensure that uniformed officers, special assignment personnel and non-sworn employees will be readily identifiable to the public through the proper use and wearing of Department uniforms. Employees should also refer to the following associated policies:

- Firearms
- Department Owned and Personal Property
- Body Armor
- Grooming Standards

The University Police Department - Northern Command will provide uniforms for all employees required to wear them in the manner, quantity and frequency.

1023.2 WEARING AND CONDITION OF UNIFORM AND EQUIPMENT

Police employees wear the uniform to be identified as the law enforcement authority in society. The uniform also serves an equally important purpose to identify the wearer as a source of assistance in an emergency, crisis or other time of need.

- (a) Uniform and equipment shall be maintained in a serviceable condition and shall be ready at all times for immediate use. Uniforms shall be neat, clean and appear professionally pressed.
- (b) All peace officers of this department shall possess and maintain at all times, a serviceable uniform and the necessary equipment to perform uniformed field duty.
- (c) Personnel shall wear only the uniform specified for their rank and assignment.
- (d) The uniform is to be worn in compliance with the specifications set forth in the Department's uniform specifications and procedures that are maintained separately from this policy.
- (e) The approved badge for all uniforms shall be a department issued metal badge. The only exception shall be for department shirts with embroidered or printed badges as authorized by the Chief of Police or their designee.
- (f) All supervisors will perform periodic inspections of their personnel to ensure conformance to these regulations.
- (g) Civilian attire shall not be worn in combination with any distinguishable part of the uniform.
- (h) Uniforms are only to be worn while on-duty, while in transit to or from work, for court or at other official Department functions or events.
- (i) If the uniform is worn while in transit, an outer garment may be worn over the uniform shirt so as not to bring attention to the employee while he/she is off-duty.

Uniform Regulations

1023.3.5 SPECIALIZED UNIT UNIFORMS

The Assistant Vice President and Chief of Police may authorize special uniforms to be worn by officers in specialized units such as Canine Team, SWAT, Bicycle Patrol, Motor Officers and other specialized assignments. These special uniforms may consist of Battle Dress Uniforms (BDUs). Officers wearing a BDU long sleeve shirt may roll up their sleeves, provided the appearance remains neat and professional. The required gear and patrol accessories remain the same as those detailed above in the Class C Patrol Uniform section.

1023.3.6 TRAINING UNIFORM

During all training events, instructors are authorized to wear tan cargo style pants and department shirts at the direction of the lead instructor for the training. Lead instructors shall have any instructor shirts approved by the supervisor of the Training Division.

Officers attending training shall wear the above detailed Class C Patrol Uniform. The lead instructor of the training may authorize officers to wear Class C pants with a department shirt if appropriate for the training.

1023.3.7 FOUL WEATHER GEAR

All jackets will be black, made of Gortex, leather, nylon, or polyester with uniform patches and rank insignia, if appropriate, affixed. Rain gear will be black, yellow or international orange with appropriate uniform patches affixed. When the temperature drops below freezing, or severe weather is imminent, officers may seek supervisor approval to wear a foul weather suit. The foul weather suit must have patches applied to each sleeve and the officer's name professionally applied in gold embroidery. The suit color will be solid, dark navy blue. Any suit/coveralls will be the responsibility of the officer to purchase and maintain and the suit design must be approved by the Director prior to usage.

1023.4 INSIGNIA AND PATCHES

- (a) Shoulder Patches - The authorized shoulder patch supplied by the Department shall be machine stitched to the sleeves of all uniform shirts and jackets, three-quarters of an inch below the shoulder seam of the shirt and be bisected by the crease in the sleeve.
- (b) Service stripes and stars - Service stripes and other indicators for length of service may be worn on long sleeved shirts and jackets. They are to be machine stitched onto the uniform. The bottom of the service stripe shall be sewn the width of one and one-half inches above the cuff seam with the rear of the service stripes sewn on the dress of the sleeve. The stripes are to be worn on the left sleeve only.
- (c) When a jacket is worn, the nameplate or an authorized sewn on cloth nameplate shall be affixed to the jacket in the same manner as the uniform.
- (d) Badge - The Department issued badge, or an authorized sewn on cloth replica, must be worn and visible at all times while in uniform.

University Police Department - Northern Command

University Police Department - Northern Command

Uniform Regulations

- (e) Department issued ribbons shall be worn on a ribbon bar no more than 3 ribbons wide. Additional rows of ribbons shall be added in subsequent rows of no more than 3 ribbons wide as more ribbons are earned.
- (f) Rank Insignia - The designated insignia indicating the employee's rank must be worn at all times while in uniform. The Assistant Vice President and Chief of Police may authorize exceptions.

1023.4.1 MOURNING BAND PROTOCOL

When authorized by the Chief of Police or designee, uniformed employees shall wear a black mourning band across the uniform badge whenever a law enforcement officer is killed in the line of duty. For star badges, the mourning band shall be worn from 11 to 5, as if looking at the face of a clock. For shield badges, the mourning band shall be worn horizontally, straight across the center of the badge. The following mourning periods will be observed:

- (a) Upon the line of duty death of an active officer of this department for a period of thirty (30) days from the date of death.
- (b) By all law enforcement in uniform or civilian clothing while displaying a badge when attending the funeral of an active law enforcement officer until completion of the funeral.
- (c) Upon the line of duty death of a law enforcement officer from a neighboring jurisdiction from the date of death until the conclusion of the day of burial.
- (d) National Peace Officer's Memorial Day (May 15th).
- (e) The day of any memorial service honoring department law enforcement officers who have died in the line of duty.
- (f) At the direction of the chief of police or designee when special circumstances dictate that a department display of official mourning is appropriate.

Officers of this department who are members of the honor guard team and representing the department at an event while in their honor guard uniform are authorized to wear a black mourning band with a blue stripe.

1023.5 CIVILIAN ATTIRE

In order to insure a professional appearance when greeting the public, full-time front office staff members will wear a department issued dark blue 5.11 tactical polo shirt with the department badge embroidered on the left chest and the employee's last name embroidered on the right chest. Slacks will be worn, except on designated "dress down" days when jeans may be worn.

There are assignments within the Department that do not require the wearing of a uniform because recognition and authority are not essential to their function. There are also assignments in which the wearing of civilian attire is necessary.

- (a) All employees shall wear clothing that fits properly, is clean and free of stains and not damaged or excessively worn.

University Police Department - Northern Command

University Police Department - Northern Command

Uniform Regulations

- (b) All male administrative, investigative and support personnel who elect to wear civilian clothing to work shall wear button style shirts with a collar, slacks or suits that are moderate in style.
- (c) All female administrative, investigative and support personnel who elect to wear civilian clothes to work shall wear dresses, slacks, shirts, blouses or suits which are moderate in style.
- (d) The following items shall not be worn on-duty:
 - 1. T-shirt alone.
 - 2. Open toed sandals, athletic shoes, or flip flops.
 - 3. Swimsuit, tube tops or halter-tops.
 - 4. Spandex type pants or see-through clothing.
 - 5. Distasteful, offensive, or political printed slogans, buttons or pins.
- (e) Variations from this order are allowed at the discretion of the Assistant Vice President and Chief of Police or designee when the employee's assignment or current task is not conducive to the wearing of such clothing.
- (f) No item of civilian attire may be worn on-duty that would adversely affect the reputation of the University Police Department - Northern Command or the morale of the employees.

1023.6 POLITICAL ACTIVITIES, ENDORSEMENTS AND ADVERTISEMENTS

Unless specifically authorized by the Assistant Vice President and Chief of Police, University Police Department - Northern Command employees may not wear any part of the uniform, be photographed wearing any part of the uniform, utilize a Department badge, patch or other official insignia, or cause to be posted, published or displayed, the image of another employee, or identify himself/herself as an employee of the University Police Department - Northern Command to do any of the following:

- (a) Endorse, support, oppose or contradict any political campaign or initiative.
- (b) Endorse, support, oppose or contradict any social issue, cause or religion.
- (c) Endorse, support or oppose, any product, service, company or other commercial entity.
- (d) Appear in any commercial, social or non-profit publication, or any motion picture, film, video, public broadcast or any website.

1023.7 OPTIONAL EQUIPMENT - MAINTENANCE AND REPLACEMENT

- (a) Any of the items listed in the Uniform and Equipment Specifications as optional shall be purchased at the expense of the employee.
- (b) Maintenance of optional items shall be the financial responsibility of the purchasing employee (e.g., repairs due to normal wear and tear).

University Police Department - Northern Command

University Police Department - Northern Command

Uniform Regulations

(c) Replacement of items listed in this order as optional shall be done as follows:

1. When the item is no longer functional because of normal wear and tear, the employee bears the full cost of replacement.
2. When the item is no longer functional because of damage in the course of the employee's duties, it may be replaced following the procedures for the replacement of damaged personal property (Policy Manual § 700).

1023.8 UNAUTHORIZED UNIFORMS, EQUIPMENT AND ACCESSORIES

University Police Department - Northern Command employees may not wear any uniform item, accessory or attachment unless specifically authorized in the Uniform and Equipment Specifications or by the Assistant Vice President and Chief of Police or designee.

University Police Department - Northern Command employees may not use or carry any tool or other piece of equipment unless specifically authorized in the Uniform and Equipment Specifications or by the Assistant Vice President and Chief of Police or designee.

1023.9 UNIFORM REPAIR AND REPLACEMENT

UNIFORM REPLACEMENT: University Police Department - Northern Command will replace uniforms that are damaged beyond repair or showing distracting or unattractive wear and tear. Officers will submit an e-mail or memorandum to their supervisor requesting replacement. Approved request for replacement will be presented to the department's uniform vendor for issuance of new or replacement uniforms.
