2019-2025 Academic Faculty Employee Headcounts by Institution and Unit
February 13, 2026
Data Source and Notes

Data Source

- Workday position data for filled positions as of November 1 each year (IPEDS reporting date)

Notes

- Position headcounts include all funding sources.
- Period-to-period position headcount changes may occur due to various reasons in addition to new positions, held positions, and incidental timing due to routine turnover and recruitment cycles
- Unit or Cost Center level comparisons may reflect organizational changes from period-to-period resulting in positions being reported in one unit/cost center in one period and under another unit/cost center in another period.
- Units and Cost Centers are financial account structure elements which generally correspond to organizational/management structure. However, there are exception situations where positions are established based on a funding source that results in a unit/cost center assignment that may not align with a position service area.
- Positions may be split funded/have a role that crosses units/cost centers, but positions are listed only once under the 'primary/default' unit/cost center.

Data Source and Notes

Data Source

- Workday position data for filled positions as of November 1 each year (IPEDS reporting date)

Notes

- Position headcounts include all funding sources.
- Period-to-period position headcount changes may occur due to various reasons in addition to new positions, held positions, and incidental timing due to routine turnover and recruitment cycles
- Unit or Cost Center level comparisons may reflect organizational changes from period-to-period resulting in positions being reported in one unit/cost center in one period and under another unit/cost center in another period.
- Units and Cost Centers are financial account structure elements which generally correspond to organizational/management structure. However, there are exception situations where positions are established based on a funding source that results in a unit/cost center assignment that may not align with a position service area.
- Positions may be split funded/have a role that crosses units/cost centers, but positions are listed only once under the 'primary/default' unit/cost center.

2019 and 2025 Executive and Administrative Faculty E Position Details
February 13, 2026
Data Source and Notes

Data Source

- Workday position data for filled positions as of November 1 each year (IPEDS reporting date)

Notes

- Period-to-period position changes may occur due to various reasons in addition to new positions, held positions, and incidental timing due to routine turnover and recruitment cycles
- Units and Cost Centers are financial account structure elements which generally correspond to organizational/management structure. However, there are exception situations where positions are established based on a funding source that results in a unit/cost center assignment that may not align with a position service area.
- Positions may be split funded/have a role that crosses units/cost centers, but positions are listed only once under the 'primary/default' unit/cost center.
- Base salary for position represents the salary at 100% FTE, even if the position is filled at less than 100% FTE (such as for phase-in retirement, etc.)
