Dr. Robert E. Fowler

Dr. Robert E Fowler, Sr. has served as the Senior Pastor of the Victory Missionary Baptist Church in Las Vegas, Nevada since 1996. He is recognized across the country for his dynamic preaching and teaching of life changing messages. Under his leadership, the Victory Missionary Baptist Church has grown from 230 to over 10,000 members.

He is a graduate of the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary and he received his Doctorate of Ministry degree from Tyndale Seminary in Dallas, Texas. He offers his experience and leadership as an activist who addresses various faith-based, academic, social, civic, legal issues and affairs in the Las Vegas, Clark County communities. He is a recipient of countless awards including the “Portraits of Pride Award 2007,” the Trumpet Award 2007, the “Gospel Legends Award 2007,” and was selected “Pastor of the Year in 2005.”

Dr. Fowler has a love for both reading and writing. He is the author of several books including Cultic Seduction of Black Americans, Handbook on Cults, The Marriage Maze, How to be Single and Satisfied and Unlocking the Bible.

Dr. Fowler serves as a director on numerous boards including: the Faith Works Board, Gang Task Force Board, Parents Engagement Board with Clark County Schools, CAAN—Caucus of African American Nevadans Board, the Las Vegas Clark County Urban League Board and the Citizen’s Review Board in Las Vegas, Nevada. He teaches Old and New Testament studies at the Community College of Southern Nevada and is a local radio personality on Sunday programs. He hosts a weekday talk show called Morning Vitamin and substitutes as talk show host for the a county commissioner on the KCEP 88.1 Saturday morning program, Straight Talk.

Dr. Fowler is married with one son.
