Chair Odunze pulls this item due to time constraints.

8. MEMBER UPDATES

INFORMATION ONLY

Members may provide information on the goals of their respective student governments and updates regarding their respective campuses' planned activities and events.

President Boulter reports that ASCSN has been filling vacant positions and conducting trainings for officers. ASCSN is working on transparency on the fee increase and where student fees are going. ASCSN also plans to create a website for their association. ASCSN also plans to get together a coalition to speak to state lawmakers.

President Curtis-Brown reports that GPSA is in a transition period and filling vacant positions. GPSA is also going through constitution and bylaw changes as well as working on their budget for the upcoming year.

President Chinnappan reports his re-election as GSA President with his Vice President. GSA leadership Ratchanya Dev Chinnappan was re-elected for another term, providing continuity as they begin the new academic year. The GSA 2025-2026 Council received Congressional Recognition from the offices of Senators Jacky Rosen and Catherine Cortez Masto for its service and advocacy on behalf of graduate students. And lastly, this summer, GSA is focused on Knowledge Fund advocacy, bylaw revisions, retreat planning, and recruiting new interns to strengthen student engagement and support.

President Flores reports the NSSA had their first and second meeting and approved a total of 6 summer meetings. They have also filled 2 out of 4 vacancies through a letter of intent process and are expecting a full board during the September Special Elections as they have been getting a lot of interest from incoming freshmen. NSSA has also approved their Student Body Legislative Priorities on June 6th and have been working closely with their Acting President and Government affairs team to also include their priorities to see how they can continue working together on shared goals. Lastly, they finally found an artist to start with the mural painting to continue with the revamping of their student space called The Scorpion Den. During this summer this project will be completed, and they will be getting started with the ribbon cutting event during the Fall Semester for Welcome Back week.

President Tavares reports the ASUNSOM finalized their constitution and are currently reviewing their student interest group policies and criteria for their more than 70 student-led organizations. They have worked with senior leadership at both the School of Medicine and the UNR main campus to help ensure that medical student fees are not increased beyond regular inflationary rates. They have overhauled their student study space policies by implementing a new system designed to ensure equitable and accessible student spaces for all.

President Moss reports the 94th Session of ASUN convened on April 15th, 2026. ASUN has begun working on key initiatives that focus on the We Are Nevada Administration's Pillars of Advocacy, Opportunity and Tradition. Officers of the association across their three branches are addressing issues such as affordability, Food insecurity, and bringing back Nevada Traditions that help shape the student experience. They are delivering on our Furthering Education Scholarship Program that will help address affordability issues surrounding testing fees that hold students back from continuing their education. We are also working to help streamline student employment and help educate students on how to use workday and get a job that supports their education. We are also working to bring back and expand Nevada Traditions that engage our students like the Welcome Week Concert and the Homecoming parade. ASUN is excited for the year to come and is ready to work diligently for every student they represent.

Vice President Arnett reports that the TMCC SGA is investigating alternative means to improve student representation. The SGA is facilitating hiring processes for an open position within Truckee Meadows Community College SGA. The SGA is also celebrating the opening of a new community dining space located on a satellite campus. Finally, the SGA is supporting the development of a new mural honoring the achievements of the Hispanic community in higher education.

President Odunze reports the 56th Executive and Legislative session are working on finalizing the budget for their student government and preparing collaborations for this next academic year. CSUN has worked on initiatives such as approving a resolution urging for a UNLV multicultural center, being better connected with their athletics and working on initiatives that will benefit students long after they leave. This includes a shade structure on alumni walk, working with the university to provide funding on UNLV's tech loaner program, and working with the Vice President of Student Affairs, Dr. Rogers and CFO Viton on scooter lanes on campus. They also would like to highlight ADA advocacy on each campus and use requested deferred maintenance opportunities to enhance the student experience in this way.

President Raine is proud to have a 100% increase to student organizations to bring student led activities and engagement to our community. GBC SGA is also happy to continue thier key wellness initiatives, including their food pantry partnering with local businesses to keep students feed, implementing student lounges on all campuses, and providing free fitness membership to their in-person students.

President Salas reports ASWN hosted over 250 student events during the 2025–2026 year, including popular programs such as Saint Patrick's Day, Global Game Day, Burgers & Badges, and De-Stress Fest, fostering student engagement and campus connection. ASWN hosted their Annual Awards and Appreciation Banquet, presenting more than 30 awards and welcoming over 200 attendees including special guest like Regent DeCarlo ASWN also participated in WNCs Senior Day for approximately 150 incoming WNC students from different high schools around the area. The ASWN also supported Commencement ceremonies on both the Carson and Fallon campuses, helping celebrate and prepare the next generation of Wildcats.
