Take 15 credits a semester to graduate on time

Taking 12 credits a semester may qualify you as a full-time student for financial aid, that course load will not allow you to finish your degree in TWO/FOUR years. Enroll in 15 credits a semester (or 30 a year) to help you graduate on time, save money, and start your career sooner.

Meet your academic advisor today and plan how you can take 15 credits a semester.
