Mrs. Genevieve (Gene) Wines Segerblom is a third generation Nevadan who has had the unique distinction of having both her grandfather and mother precede her as a member of the Nevada legislature. Her son, Richard (Tick) Segerblom, now serving as a member of the State Assembly, is the fourth generation to serve. Gene, who was born in Ruby Valley, Nevada, graduated from high school in Winnemucca, and attended the University of Nevada, Reno where she earned her bachelor's degree in 1940. After graduation she moved to Boulder City and began teaching at Boulder City High School. She met and married Cliff Segerblom and resigned to move with Cliff to Panama for 6 years before returning to Boulder City at the end of WWII. While her children were young, Mrs. Segerblom became a freelance writer and worked collaboratively with her husband Cliff who was an accomplished photographer known for chronicling the beauty and history that is uniquely Nevada and who later founded the photography department at UNLV. Mrs. Segerblom later returned to teach Government at Boulder City High School for 20 years.
