

College of Southern Nevada

Biography for Kristopher Del Campo Regents' Scholar Award 2011

Kristopher Del Campo was born in Fountain Valley, CA and raised in Buena Park, CA. His family moved to Las Vegas in 2005 and graduated from Bonanza High School in 2007. He is currently seeking an Associate's Degree of Arts in the Emphasis of Psychology at the College of Southern Nevada. Prior to attending classes at CSN, He was attending classes at Nevada State College and served as a student senator for the 2007-2008 academic year. While attending classes he became involved in the 2008 McCain-Palin Presidential Campaign, and after became a Board Member of the Clark County Republican Party. His dream is to get a BA in Psychology as well as a Law Degree and hopefully someday become a politician to serve the people.