Comment:

I'm a PhD student in Computer Science Department. I have been in UNR for 3 years. The cost of everything increase every semester: housing, food, gas, car insurance especially recently. While stipend is stable forever. My apt rent added 20% next month. We still survive by somehow if nobody do anything. But students like me or my friends do have any saving money if we have to go to hospital or want to by clothes

Agenda Item: Graduate Student Assistantship Increase

In Favor / Opposed / Other: No Position stated – Concerned or Neutral

Comment:

Graduate students are a pivotal part of the universities ability to function both in with the public through outreach and privately through teaching classes. Yet, graduate students are not being paid enough to keep up with the increase of inflation and thus many are having to chose between food, medical help, and their place of living, How can one expect graduate students to preform in the manner expected of them when they must make this difficult decision? If graduate students are to keep the level of excellence associated with this university, their quality of life must be increase through an increase to their graduate student assistantship.

Agenda Item: Graduate Student Stipend Increase

In Favor / Opposed / Other: In Favor

Comment:

As a graduate student I can say With this minimal stipend it is really hard to lead a normal life. After paying all the bills it barely leaves anything for regular good meal. Again because of the increasing price of everything, cooking my meal and trying to save money is not working too. To lead a stress free life and to have a peaceful mind to do research and normal work it is really necessary to have an increased stipend rate, even if it is 100-200 dollar.

Due to circumstances, students may need to attend & complete high school outside of Nevada. Students who have this necessity should not be excluded from eligibility for the Nevada Foster Youth Fee Waiver when they meet the other requirements.
