DEGREES AND AWARDS

Section 1. Distinguished Nevadan and Honorary Degree Nominations

1. Distinguished Nevadans
   a. Nominations for the award of Distinguished Nevadan will be made by the Board of Regents pursuant to the Board of Regents Handbook (Title 4, Chapter 1, Section 15). Nominations must be received by the Chief of Staff of the Board no later than December 31 of each academic year. The Board of Regents shall make the award on or before March 31 of each academic year.
   b. The purpose of the awards is to recognize prominent individuals who are present or former residents of the state for their significant achievements contributing to the cultural, economic, scientific, or social advancement of Nevada and its people; or for exceptional service to the state or nation that has influenced constructively the well-being of humankind. Persons currently holding or running as a candidate for a public elective office shall not be eligible to be nominated for Distinguished Nevadan, except that the Board of Regents reserves the right to waive this limitation at its own discretion in extraordinary circumstances.
   c. These awards shall normally be given at Spring commencement exercises.

2. Honorary Degrees
   a. Nominations for honorary degrees shall be made to the Board of Regents by the president for any degree that is officially offered by the requesting institution.
   b. Honorary degrees may, at the discretion of the president and with approval from the Board of Regents, be conferred at any time during the year at an appropriate ceremony. No more than two honorary degrees will be conferred at each institution's commencement ceremony unless otherwise approved by the Board.
   c. Honorary degrees may be awarded to persons who have made significant contributions to the improvement of the quality of academic programs and academic life at the requesting institution, or to distinguished visitors. Persons currently holding or running as a candidate for a public elective office shall not be eligible to be nominated for an honorary degree, except that the Board of Regents reserves the right to waive this limitation at its own discretion in extraordinary circumstances.

The following procedures outline the nomination and selection process for each award:
1. Regents’ Creative Activities Award

The Nevada Regents’ Award for Creative Activities is given annually to two full-time NSHE faculty members with distinguished records in creative activity. Full-time faculty with a distinguished record in creative activity at UNLV, UNR and NSU will be eligible for one award. Full-time faculty with a distinguished record in creative activity at CSN, GBC, TMCC, and WNC will be eligible for one award. Although this award is intended for individuals, groups who by their collaboration have made major advances may be recognized as well.

A. Nominations. Notification is sent annually by the Chancellor’s Office to each NSHE campus to begin the nomination process initially in April with a follow up in early September. Each institution, except DRI, may submit one nomination only for consideration to the Vice Chancellor for Academic and Student Affairs. Each nomination must contain the following information only:

   i. Formal letter of nomination from an NSHE employee or student, adhering to the following guidelines:

      1. The nomination letter must indicate the significance, volume, and quality of the candidate’s creative activity in such a way as to clarify the nominee’s activities for individuals from other disciplines;
      2. The letter must address clear evidence of the national or international stature of the candidate’s creative activity. This evidence should reflect recognized evaluation in the form of critically reviewed presentations, books, and other forms of recognition (e.g., invited presentations, juried exhibitions, awards, honors). A fuller listing of these should be provided in the nominee’s curriculum vitae, which must be attached to the letter of nomination; and
      3. The letter of nomination must address the candidate’s continuous record of long-term creative activity.

   ii. Curriculum vitae containing a list of presentations, awards, and honors; and

   iii. Supplementary materials as follows:

      1. No more than three examples of a scholarly, creative product (e.g., music CD, art slides, videotape, audiotape, work of fiction or non-fiction, piece of artwork, etc.);
      2. No more than three reviews, adjudications, or testimonials conferred by persons who audited the original work;
      3. No more than three letters of support from persons knowledgeable of the nominee’s qualifications; and
      4. Names, addresses, and phone numbers of up to five persons outside of the NSHE whom the Selection Committee may contact about the candidate’s creative achievements.

Nomination materials must be submitted to the Department of Academic and Student Affairs via electronic mail. The deadline for campus nominations to be received by the Chancellor’s Office will be no later than October 30 of each year. The exact deadline will be provided to the institutions by the Vice Chancellor for Academic and Student Affairs in the annual call for nominations.

B. Length of Service. Candidates must have at least five years of cumulative service in the NSHE by the date of nomination in order to be considered for the award.
C. Composition of the NSHE Selection Committee for the university/state college award:
   i. Vice Chancellor for Academic and Student Affairs or designee to act as non-voting chair;
   ii. One Academic Affairs Council member or their designee from each UNR, UNLV and NSU; and
   iii. One creative artist from each UNR, UNLV and NSU.
D. Composition of the NSHE Selection Committee for the community college award:
   i. Vice Chancellor for Academic and Student Affairs or designee to act as non-voting chair;
   ii. One Academic Affairs Council member or their designee from each community college; and
   iii. One creative artist from each community college.
E. Committee Review. The Committee may elect to utilize an external entity as part of its evaluation of nominees.
F. Final Approval. The results of the selection committee review shall be presented to the Academic, Research and Student Affairs Committee for recommendation to the full Board for final approval.
G. Award Amount: $5,000

2. Regents’ Researcher Award and Regents’ Rising Researcher Awards

Regents’ Researcher Award. This award is given annually to NSHE faculty members at UNLV, UNR, NSU or DRI with a distinguished record in research. Two awards will be given annually: one to a faculty member in recognition of a distinguished career in research and one to a faculty member in recognition of mid-career accomplishments in research. Although this award is intended for individuals, groups who by their collaboration have made major advances may be recognized as well. The intent is to select one individual (or group) for recognition each year. However, the selection committee may choose to send forward more than one recommendation in exceptional circumstances.

I. Researcher Award – Distinguished Career

   A. Nominations. Notification is sent annually by the Chancellor’s Office to each of the eligible institutions (UNLV, UNR, NSU, and DRI) to begin the nomination process initially in April with a follow up in early September.
