

Revisions to the UNLV Bylaws
Underlines are additions
Brackets are deletions

- In all occurrences, change Provost to Executive Vice President and Provost.
- In all occurrences, change untenurable or non-tenurable to nontenure-track.
- In all occurrences, change chairmen, chairman, chairperson to chair.
- In all occurrences, change Faculty Senate Priority and New Program Review Committee or Priority and New Program Review to Faculty Senate Priority and New Program Committee.

UNLV Bylaws Chapter I

Section 1. Delegated Authority. The Board of Regents delegates to the faculty of the University of Nevada, Las Vegas (UNLV) the authority and responsibility for organizing itself in accordance with institution bylaws and for recommending policy on matters of faculty welfare, on the rights of faculty under the University and Community College System of Nevada Code, and on faculty involvement in the University's primary missions of teaching, research, and public and community service. (See Chapter I, Section [1.4.4 and 1.4.5] 1.3.4, 1.4.7, and 1.4.8 of the University and Community College System of Nevada Code.)

Section 4.1. 1.3 Nontenure-track Academic Faculty. "Nontenure-track Academic Faculty" means unranked members of the academic faculty who are not eligible to receive appointment with tenure and they will be designated Rank 0.

[Section 4.1.3 Untenurable Faculty. "Untenurable Faculty" means members of the faculty who are not eligible to received appointment with tenure.] Renumber.

Section 4.3.3 Administrative Channels for Tenure Recommendations. (See University and Community College System of Nevada Code, Chapter 5, Sections 5.2.3 and 5.2.4, and UNLV Bylaws, Chapter I, Section [4.6.6.] 4.6.9)

Section 4.3.5 "5.9.1 Minimum Notice of Nonreappointment. Except as provided in Subsections 5.4.2 and 5.9.2 of the University and Community College System of Nevada Code, and unless provided otherwise in an employment contract, notice of nonreappointment to employment of nontenured faculty at the University of Nevada, Reno, the University of Nevada, Las Vegas, Nevada State College, Henderson...

Section 4.4.1 Department or Unit Bylaws Authorized. The faculty assigned to each department or unit [may] must create bylaws to govern its internal operation.

Section 4.6.6 Faculty Development Leave Committee.

Section 4.6.15 Special Hearing Committee.

Section 4.6.16 Tenure and Promotion Committee.

Section 4.8 Professional Staff Unit. The [nonacademic faculty of the] Professional Staff Unit shall create at least the following committees:

Section 4.8.1 [Promotion Committee.] Faculty Senate Professional Staff Committee.
[Section 4.8.2] [Section 4.8.3]