

Revisions to the UNLV Bylaws
Underlines are additions
Brackets are deletions

- In all occurrences, change Provost to Executive Vice President and Provost.
- In all occurrences, change untenurable or non-tenurable to nontenure- track.
- In all occurrences, change chairmen, chairman, chairperson to chair.
- In all occurrences, change Faculty Senate Priority and New Program Review Committee or Priority and New Program Review to Faculty Senate Priority and New Program Committee.

UNLV Bylaws Chapter II

Section 5.2A Interinstitutional, Interdepartmentall or Interdisciplinary Course Approval.

Section 5.3.7 Implementation of Course Changes. [Registrar's Office] Student Enrollment Services

Section 7.1 Academic Budgets. [The Faculty Senate Academic Budget Committee, in cooperation with the provost, shall recommend an academic budget for the university.]

Section 8.4 The principles of academic freedom and responsibility apply in the research function of a university and its faculty as well as in the teaching function. See Chapter 2 of the Code.

Section 10.2 The president may appoint faculty members to committees. The president has delegated authority to the Faculty Senate to appoint and/or elect members to the standing committees of the Faculty Senate listed in Chapter I, Section 4.6, and for these committees to function pursuant to their charges.

Section 10.5.2 In recruiting and screening candidates for the Graduate College deanship, the provost shall convene a recruitment and screening committee which shall consist of [seven] graduate faculty members, one each elected by the graduate faculty of each college/division/school in accordance with their bylaws; a senator elected by the Faculty Senate, one dean or director appointed by the provost from the Academic Council (ex-officio and non-voting); a graduate student [democratically] elected by the Graduate Student Association, and any nonvoting members selected by the provost.