Equity

Equity is:

- Fairness.
- Meeting individual needs through intentional design of the college experience.
- Ensuring all aspects of higher education practice are conducted with inclusive excellence.
- Empowerment through removal of structural and systemic barriers.
- Integration of diverse stakeholders in decision making.

NSHE's responsibility:

- Confront long-standing, systemic inequity.
- Implement an equity-specific agenda.
- Prioritize opportunities for underserved students, faculty/staff, and communities to achieve equal outcomes.

NSHE's opportunity:

- Demographics forecast for the future of America.
- NSHE can serve as a transformational model for closing the achievement gap.
- Become an employer of choice.

- Funding
- Academic Support
- Student Support

Collaborative Research

Collaborative Research:

- Focuses on innovative solutions to real-world problems regionally, statewide, nationally, and globally.
- Promotes collaboration, multidisciplinary learning, workforce development, and STEM competitiveness.
- Elevates NSHE's role in supporting the economic diversification goals for Nevada.

NSHE's responsibility:

- Align expertise of NSHE institutions with the economic development interests of the state.
- Promote collaborative research efforts between NSHE institutions.
- Implement procedures and mechanisms to enhance research competitiveness.

NSHE's opportunity:

- Create greater opportunities for public and private research partnerships and collaborations.
- Cultivate innovative research activity for students.
- Deliver real and lasting contributions to our state and regional economies.

Collaborative Research

NSHE is currently focused on:

- Numerous ongoing research projects at NSHE institutions
- Nevada System Sponsored Programs and Established Program to Stimulate Competitive Research (EPSCoR)
- Joint Research Task Force

Funding

NSHE Funding is:

- Based on a model developed by the legislature with input from the NSHE Board of Regents.
- Current funding model ensures state funding is equitable to all institutions, simpler, and transparent.
- Current model consists of two basic components: base formula driven primarily by course completions and a performance pool.

NSHE's responsibility:

- Maximize and coordinate the use of resources within the System.
- Support efforts to bring in federal dollars.
- Advocate for equity among all institutions.

NSHE's opportunity:

- Transform to a sustainable funding model for the long-term.
- Build a culture of philanthropy within NSHE.
- Drive change within the system through strategic investments.

Funding

NSHE is currently focused on:

- Current model sustainability
- Responding to the state's funding formula
- Private investment
- Federal funding for higher education

Academic Support

Academic Support is:

- Seamless transfer which is defined as the ease with which students move between NSHE institutions.
- Online learning introduces new opportunities for student success and challenges that need to be addressed by taking the student off-campus.
- Strategies and tools used to ensure success for students of all levels of academic preparation.

NSHE's responsibility:

- Emphasize "systemness" between all 8 NSHE institutions.
- Provide a single vision that allows for reducing gaps and duplication in online services.
- Provide standards and support for student advising, co-requisite, access, and other services for all students.

NSHE's opportunity:

- Collaboratively address barriers to ensure successful student experience within the system.
- Provide a vision for the maximization of system-wide tools to remain competitive in the online learning market.
- Become a national leader in serving the demographics that will be the future of the country.

Academic Support

NSHE is currently focused on:

- Online learning task force in place
